ABOUT ME

I am Ivan C. Reyes, currently pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology Major in Web System Technology as a 4th-year student at Nueva Ecija University of Science and Technology Sumacab Campus. I am passionate about website development and eager to learn and grow as a Web Developer or Software Engineer.

As a student, I am seeking an internship opportunity where I can apply my knowledge, gain practical experience, and enhance my skills in a professional setting. While I am still learning, my dedication and passion for what I do drive me to continuously improve and contribute meaningfully to a team.
